6. Contributions. Only the Holder may make contributions to the Account, in such amounts as are permitted under the Tax Act, in cash or such other property as may be permitted in the sole discretion of the Trustee. The Trustee, in its sole discretion, may require the Holder to provide such documentation in respect of any investment or proposed investment as the Trustee deems necessary in the circumstances. The Trustee reserves the right to decline to make any particular investment if the proposed investment and related documentation do not comply with the Trustee's requirements at that time. While there is a Holder, no one who is neither the Holder nor the Trustee shall have any rights relating to the investment and reinvestment of the Property.
11. Segregated Funds. Segregated funds forming part of the Property will be held in nominee name. The Holder agrees to designate the Trustee as the beneficiary under any segregated fund held in the Account. Upon the death of the Holder, the proceeds of the segregated funds paid shall form part of the Property to be dealt with according to the terms of this Trust Agreement.
12. Choice of Investments. The Holder shall be responsible for selecting the investments of the Account, ensuring that an investment is and continues to be a Qualified Investment, and determining whether any such investment is not and continues not to be a Prohibited Investment. The Trustee shall exercise the care, diligence, and skill of a reasonably prudent person to minimize the possibility that the Account holds a non-Qualified Investment. The Holder shall have the right to appoint the Agent as his or her agent for the purpose of giving investment directions as provided in this paragraph.
13. Uninvested Cash. Uninvested cash will be placed on deposit with the Trustee or an affiliate of the Trustee. The Holder may not assign all or any part of the Property or payments from the Account or pledge or alienate the Property as security for a loan or other indebtedness. Any attempt by the Holder to use his or her interest or right in the Account as security for a loan or indebtedness shall not be recognized by the Trustee and shall be null and void.

No one other than the Holder and the Trustee shall have any rights under the Account relating to the amount and timing of Distributions.
17. Designation of Successor Holder or Beneficiary.
  - (a) Subject to Applicable Laws, the Holder (or, if permitted by Applicable Laws, the Holder's legal representative) may designate the Spouse to be the successor Holder under the Account after the Holder's death if the Spouse survives the Holder, or one or more beneficiaries to receive the Account Proceeds if the Holder dies before the termination of the Account and, at any time, change or revoke such a designation as set out below.
  - (b) A designation may only be made, changed or revoked, and signed by the Holder in a format acceptable to the Agent, or by Will, and, in either case, will not be accepted unless delivered to the Agent prior to any Account Proceeds being paid from the Account to the Survivor or any beneficiaries. If the designation is made by Will, such designation will only be accepted if provided after the Holder's death as part of the Estate Documents, and not earlier.
  - (c) For further clarity, there will be no designation of successor Holder or beneficiary permitted with respect to the Account if the Holder is domiciled in Quebec when such designation would have taken place.If under Applicable Laws expressly pertaining to the designation of beneficiaries, the Holder wishes to make an irrevocable designation of beneficiary under the Account, it must be filed in accordance with paragraph 34 [Notice]. Acceptance of such designation will be subject to the policies and procedures of the Trustee and the Agent and may be refused if non-compliant. If there is any inconsistency between the provisions of this Trust Agreement and any additional terms which may apply as a result of the irrevocable designation, the additional terms shall govern the Account provided that no such additional term would result in the Account not being acceptable as a FHSA under the Tax Act.
18. Death of Holder (Where there Is a Successor Holder). Subject to Applicable Laws, upon the Holder's death and receipt of Estate Documents by the Agent which are satisfactory to the Agent, where:
  - (a) the Holder has designated the Survivor as successor Holder; and
  - (b) the Spouse survives the holder and is therefore a "Survivor";the Survivor is, after the time of death, deemed to have entered into a new qualifying arrangement in respect of the FHSA unless:

- (c) the Survivor is a Qualifying Individual, and the balance of the FHSA is transferred to the Survivor's RRSP or RRIF, or distributed to the Survivor, by the end of the year following the year of death (and included in computing the Survivor's income for the year); or
- (d) the Survivor is not a Qualifying Individual, in which case the balance of the FHSA must be transferred to the Survivor's RRSP or RRIF, or distributed to the Survivor by the end of the year following the year of death (and included in computing the Survivor's income for the year).

Where the Holder designates as successor Holder a person who was not the Holder's Spouse at the time of the Holder's death, and was therefore not a "Survivor", the Agent will be able to treat and rely on that appointment as a designation of beneficiary, rather than of a successor Holder. The Trustee and the Agent are fully discharged by such distribution or transfer, even though any successor holder designation made by the Holder may be invalid as a testamentary instrument.

19. Death of Holder (Where there is a Designated Beneficiary). Subject to Applicable Laws, upon the death of the Holder and receipt of Estate Documents by the Agent which are satisfactory to the Agent, where:

- (a) the Holder has designated one or more Beneficiaries; and
- (b) the Holder has not designated the Spouse as a successor Holder or the Spouse, so designated, has not survived the Holder or is no longer the Holder's Spouse at the time of the Holder's death and, therefore, is not a "Survivor";

the Trustee will pay the Proceeds to the beneficiaries within a reasonable time after the Holder's death. The Trustee and the Agent will be fully discharged by such payment, even though any beneficiary designation made by the Holder may be invalid as a testamentary instrument or under the laws of the jurisdiction where the Holder is domiciled at death. If a trustee has been designated as beneficiary of the Account or for a beneficiary, the Trustee and the Agent will be fully discharged by payment to the trustee without any obligation to see to the due execution of any trust imposed upon such trustee.

Subject to Applicable Laws, if any beneficiary predeceases the Holder or dies at the same time as the Holder or in circumstances rendering it impossible to determine which of the Holder or the beneficiary died first, then the Proceeds allocated to the deceased person(s) will be divided equally among the surviving beneficiary(ies). For greater certainty, the share of a deceased person will go in equal portions to the surviving beneficiary(ies).

If all of the designated beneficiaries have died before the Holder, or if the Holder has not designated a beneficiary, the Trustee will pay the Proceeds to the Holder's estate in accordance with the Estate Documents, Applicable Laws and any relevant instructions from the Estate Representative.

Any amount distributed in a taxation year from the FHSA to, or on behalf of, a Beneficiary, shall be included in computing the Beneficiary's income for the year.

20. Death of Holder (Where there is no Successor Holder or Designated Beneficiary but there is a Survivor). Subject to Applicable Laws, upon the Holder's death and receipt of Estate Documents by the Agent which are satisfactory to the Agent, where:

- (a) the Holder has not designated, as successor Holder the Spouse who survives the Holder and is therefore a "Survivor", or a beneficiary; and
- (b) the Survivor is entitled to all or a portion of the Proceeds distributed to the Holder's legal representative in full or partial satisfaction of the Survivor's rights as a person beneficially interested under the Holder's estate; if a payment is made from the estate to:
  - (c) the Survivor's FHSA, RRSP or RRIF, the payment is deemed to be a transfer from the Account in accordance with paragraph 29 [Transfers out of the Account] to the extent that it is so designated jointly by the Estate Representative and the Survivor in prescribed form filed with the Minister;
  - (d) the Survivor, the payment is deemed to be a Distribution to the Survivor as a beneficiary to the extent that it is so designated jointly by the Estate Representative and the Survivor in prescribed form filed with the Minister.

21. Release of Information. The Trustee and the Agent each are authorized to release any information about the Account and the Proceeds, after the Holder's death, to any or all of the Holder's Estate Representative, the Spouse, or a beneficiary designated for purposes of the Account as the Trustee deems advisable.

22. Payment into Court. If there is a dispute about who is legally authorized:

- (a) a payout from the Account or equalization of Property or other dispute arising from a breakdown of the Holder's marriage or common law partnership;
- (b) the validity or enforceability of any legal demand or claim against the Property; or
- (c) the authority of a person or personal representative to apply for and accept receipt of the Proceeds on death of the Holder;

the Trustee and the Agent are entitled to either apply to the court for directions or pay the Proceeds into court and, in either case, fully recover any legal costs it incurs in this regard as Expenses from the Account.

23. Limitation of Liability. The Trustee shall not be liable for any loss suffered by the Account, by the Holder or by any Survivor or beneficiary designated for purposes of the Account as a result of the purchase, sale or retention of any investment including any loss resulting from the Trustee acting on the direction of the agent appointed by the Holder to provide investment direction.

24. Indemnity. The Holder agrees to indemnify the Trustee for all compensation, Expenses and Taxes, other than those Taxes for which the Trustee is liable in accordance with the Tax Act and that cannot be charged against or deducted from the Property in accordance with the Tax Act, incurred or owing in connection with the Account to the extent that such compensation, Expenses and Taxes cannot be paid out of the Property.

25. Self-Dealing. The Trustee's services are not exclusive and, subject to the limitations otherwise provided in this Trust Agreement on the powers of the Trustee, the Trustee may, for any purpose, and is hereby expressly authorized from time to time in its sole discretion to, appoint, employ, invest in, contract or deal with any individual, firm, partnership, association, trust or body corporate, with which it may be directly or indirectly interested or affiliated with, whether on its own account or on the account of another (in a fiduciary capacity or otherwise), and to profit therefrom, without being liable to account therefore and without being in breach of this Trust Agreement.

26. Fees, Compensation, Expenses and Taxes. The Trustee and Agent will be entitled to such reasonable fees as each may establish from time to time for services rendered in connection with the Account. All such fees will, unless first paid directly to the Agent, be charged against and deducted from the Property in such manner as the Agent or Trustee determines.

All Expenses incurred shall be paid from the Account, including Expenses with respect to the execution of third party demands or claims against the Account.

All Taxes, other than those Taxes for which the Trustee is liable and that cannot be charged against or deducted from the Property in accordance with the Tax Act, will be charged against and deducted from the Property in such manner as the Agent determines.

27. Sale of Property. The Trustee and Agent may sell Property in their respective sole discretion for the purposes of paying compensation, Expenses and Taxes, other than those Taxes for which the Trustee is liable in accordance with the Tax Act and that cannot be charged against or deducted from the Property in accordance with the Tax Act.

28. Transfers into the Account. Amounts may be transferred to the Account from:

- (a) another FHSA of the Holder, or an RRSP or RRIF of which the Holder is the annuitant in such amounts and accounts as are permitted under the Tax Act;
- (b) an FHSA of the Holder's Spouse or Former Spouse where the transfer is made:
  - (i) under a decree, order or judgment of a competent tribunal, or under a written separation agreement, relating to the division of property between the Holder and the Spouse or Former Spouse in settlement of rights, arising out of, or on the breakdown of, their marriage or common-law partnership; or
  - (ii) as a consequence of the death of the Holder's Spouse or Former Spouse.

29. Transfers out of the Account. Upon delivery to the Agent of a direction from the Holder at any time as may be permitted by the Tax Act and in a form satisfactory to the Trustee, the Trustee shall transfer all or a portion of the Property as is specified in the direction:

- (a) to another FHSA of the Holder or to an RRSP or RRIF of which the Holder is the annuitant in such amounts and accounts as are permitted under the Tax Act; or
- (b) to an FHSA of the Holder's Spouse or Former Spouse or to an RRSP or RRIF of which the Spouse or Former Spouse is the annuitant:
  - (i) under a decree, order or judgment of a competent tribunal, or under a written agreement, relating to a division of property between the Holder and the Spouse or Former Spouse in settlement of rights arising out of, or on a breakdown of, their marriage or common-law partnership; or
  - (ii) as a consequence of the Holder's death.

Where the amount is so transferred directly and does not exceed the amount determined by the formula  $A - B$  where

A is the total fair market value of all property held by a FHSA under which the individual is a holder, and the amount is not included, and no deduction may be made in respect of the amount, in computing the taxpayer's income of any taxpayer.

B is the excess FHSA amount (as defined in subsection 207.01 of the Tax Act) of the individual at the particular time.

30. Termination. The arrangement ceases to be an FHSA after the end of the period that begins when the Holder first enters into a Qualifying Arrangement, and ends at the end of the year following the year in which the earliest of the following occurs:

- (a) the 14th anniversary of the date the Holder first enters into a Qualifying Arrangement,
- (b) the Holder attains 70 years of age, and
- (c) the Holder first makes a Qualifying Withdrawal from an FHSA.

31. Changes to Trust Agreement. The Trustee may change this Trust Agreement periodically. The Holder will be notified on how to obtain an amended copy of the Trust Agreement reflecting any such change and will be deemed to have accepted such changes. No change to this Trust Agreement (including a change calling for the Trustee's resignation as trustee or the termination of the trust created by this Trust Agreement) will be retroactive or result in the Account not being acceptable as an FHSA under the Applicable Laws.

32. Replacement of Trustee.

- (a) The Trustee may resign by giving such written notice to the Agent as may be required from time to time under the terms of an agreement entered into between the Agent and the Trustee. The Holder will be given at least 30 days prior notice of such resignation. On the effective date of such resignation, the Trustee will be discharged from all further duties, responsibilities, and liabilities under this Trust Agreement, except those incurred before the effective date. The Trustee will transfer all Property, together with all information required to continue the administration of the Property as a first home savings account under the Applicable Laws, to a successor trustee.
- (b) The Trustee has agreed to resign upon it being provided with notice in writing by the Agent if the Trustee is satisfied that the successor trustee nominated by the Agent will properly assume and fulfill the Trustee's duties and liabilities hereunder in respect of the administration of the Account.
- (c) In either event, the Agent shall forthwith nominate a person to replace the Trustee and the resignation of the Trustee shall not take effect until its replacement has been so nominated by the Agent and appointed as successor by the Trustee and approved by Canada Revenue Agency or its successor. Failing the nomination of a replacement by the Agent within 30 days after receipt by it of a notice of resignation, the Trustee shall be entitled to appoint a person as its own replacement.
- (d) Upon any such appointment and resignation of the Trustee, the person so appointed as replacement trustee shall, without further act or formality, be and become the Trustee hereunder. Such replacement trustee shall, without any conveyance or transfer, be vested with the same power, rights, duties and responsibilities as the Trustee and with the assets of the Account as if the replacement trustee had been the original Trustee. The Trustee shall execute and deliver to the replacement trustee all such conveyances, transfers and further assurances as may be necessary or advisable to give effect to the appointment of the replacement trustee.
- (e) Any person appointed as a replacement trustee shall be a corporation resident in Canada that is licensed or otherwise authorized under the laws of Canada or a province or territory to carry on in Canada the business of offering to the public its services as trustee.
- (f) Any trust company resulting from the merger or amalgamation of the Trustee with one or more trust companies and any trust company that succeeds to substantially all of the trust business of the Trustee shall thereupon become the successor to the Trustee without further act or formality. In all such cases, Canada Revenue Agency or its successor shall be notified.

33. Assignment by Agent. The Agent may assign its rights and obligations hereunder to any other corporation resident in Canada authorized to assume and discharge the obligations of the Agent hereunder and under the Applicable Laws.

Pre-Authorized Chequing Plan (PAC) Agreement – Terms and Conditions

By signing this application, you hereby waive any pre-notification requirements as specified by section 15(a) and (b) of the Canadian Payments Association Rule H1 with regards to PACs. If you have indicated on the application that you want to make regular deposits using a Pre-Authorized Chequing Plan (PAC), you authorize Value Partners Investments Inc. (VPI) to debit the bank account provided for the specified amount(s) and in the frequencies selected. If this is for your own personal investment, your debit will be considered a Personal Pre-authorized debit agreement (PAD) by Canadian Payments Association definition. If this is for business purposes, it will be considered a Business PAD. Monies transferred between CPA members will be considered a Funds Transfer PAD. You have certain recourse rights if any debit does not comply with this agreement. For example, you have the right to receive reimbursement for any debit that is not authorized or is not consistent with this PAC Agreement. To obtain more information on your recourse rights, you may contact your financial institution, VPI or visit www.cdnpay.ca. You may change these instructions or cancel this plan at any time, subject to providing VPI notice of at least 48 hours prior to the next PAC run date. To obtain a sample cancellation form, or for more information on your right to cancel a PAC agreement, you may contact your financial institution, VPI or visit www.cdnpay.ca. You agree to release the financial institution and VPI of all liability if the revocation is not respected, except in the case of gross negligence by the financial institution or VPI. VPI is authorized to accept changes to this agreement from your registered dealer or your financial advisor in accordance with the policies of that company, in accordance with the disclosure and authorization requirements of the CPA. You agree that the information in this form will be shared with the financial institution, insofar as the disclosure of this information is directly related to and necessary for the proper application of the rules applicable for PACs. You acknowledge and agree that you are fully liable for any charges incurred if the debits cannot be made due to insufficient funds or any other reason for which you may be held accountable. You confirm that all persons whose signature are required to authorize transactions in the bank account provided have read and agreed to these terms and signed this application.
